Popcorn Monthly Writing Activity Freebie

If you want to engage your students and get them excited about writing, pop some popcorn and use this Draw, Color, and Write activity. To make it even more spectacular, add in some more popcorn activities throughout the day. I have a sprinkling of ideas on my blog to get you started ... like the Popcorn Fight that goes with the sight words page I included here.

Popcorn Fight: write sight words on popcorn and cut out. Have students read a word. If they read the word, they get the word and wad it up to form popcorn (not too small). When finished, have a popcorn fight. *Establish rules before play for safety.

You can also read about using the Monthly Writing Calendar to plan your writing assignments.

Monthly Writing Activities Freebie

Visit my blog post for more details and popcorn activities.

And if you'd like more writing activities like this to use with your students every day, click on the Monthly Product Resources links. Each month has 25 Draw, Color, and Write prompts for you to choose from, a Monthly Writing Calendar with Fun Days at the bottom that you can incorporate into your lessons to increase student engagement, along with matching writing prompts as well as holidays, themes, and a monthly coordinating Fairy Tale.

I hope you and your students enjoy using this activity. If you find an error or you have questions or suggestions, please email me at southernems@comcast.net.

Thanks!

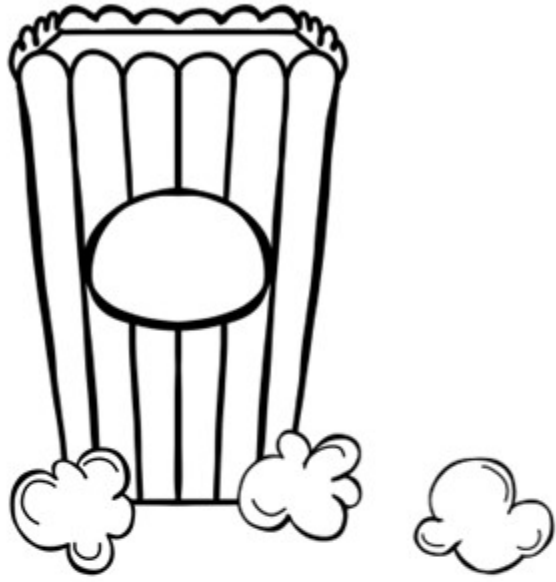

Cindy
